LOCATION OVERVIEW

Positioned along Arlington Street in one of Ada's active retail corridors, the property benefits from strong visibility and convenient access within a well established commercial area. The surrounding trade area includes a mix of neighborhood retail, dining, and service providers that support both local residents and the nearby East Central University campus. Wintersmith Park and the Ada Arts District are also located nearby, contributing to consistent community activity.

The proximity to ECU provides a steady customer base of students, faculty, and visitors, making the location particularly attractive for quick service restaurant, coffee, and service oriented businesses seeking a central Ada presence.
